In a Snappy Game at Broad-Street Park Locals Lose.

THE SCORE WAS THREE TO ONE

One of the Best Games of the Season Was Seen Yesterday Afternoon by One Thousand Five Hundred People-Tabulated Score.

No less than three Manchesterian ath letes floundered around the circuit at Broad-Street Park yesterday afternoon crossing the plate with runs to their credit, while the ex-champion Brownies plastered but a single tally on the score plastered but a single tally on the score board, and Mr. McEvoy, the boy with the wondrous drop, was twirling for the boys from Fulton. How sad for the here-tofore invincible Johnny! His fierce pruning shoots were clinected with at the most inopportune moments, and the result was naturel, inasmuch as Mr.

result was naturel, lnasmuch as Mr. Thomas, who did the slab work for the visitors, gave up on four hits.

As has been opined before, four safe swats in base-balldom are regarded as unlucky for the team making them, and extremely fortunate for the slabsman who does the drit, and only once was the ball biffed hard by a Brownie, and this amounted to naught, for the foxy swatter endeavored to stretch the hit, a good three-bases rates a home run and was ter endeavored to stretch the hit, a good three-bagger, into a home run and was thrown out at the plate.

Fully 1,500 people had turned out to witness the context, and the local team was a big favorite before the game commenced, the chances of Manchester being regarded as slim even by their most ardent supporters, a large flock of whom adorned the grandstand and bleachers.

While Manchester had defeated the While Manchester had defeated the Brownles in their last sonata at Broad-Sireet Park the victory was regarded by many as a fluke, one of those unavoidable accidents that will happen to the best of them at times, and no one really thought the visitors had a ghost of a show, especially since it was known tha John McDroy, the boy who let Petersburg down without a run, and only one measly single, was to do the twirling for the locals.

True, Manchester had decided to show Mr. Thomas, the ex-Three I Leaguer, in the box, and while every one admitted that he was a crack-a-jack slabsman no one thought for a minute he was in the class with McEvoy. And then, too, it was argued that Manchester could not swat the ball like the boys from Fulton. But before the game was over the entire crowd were of an entirely different opinion, and now Mr. Thomas is looked upon in the greatest twirler in the association.

WERE ALL EARNED.

There is no fault to find with McEvoy's hex work, for he pitched a remarkably good game. It was not, however, the kind that wing, for he failed to keep the ball in the diamond at the critical stages of the game, every run made by Manches-of the game, every run made by Manchester being earned.

Poth nitchers gave two men their bases, while McEvery purposed top of the harless.

Both attribus gave two men their bases, while McEviv punched ten of the hapless Manchesterians. Thomas succeeded in feeding only six of the Brownies, but these facts do not convey the correct impression, as McEvoy's strike-outs were charged against only four players, Jennings felling to connect four times and Thomas three times. Neither of these two meneven so much a-fouled the ball during their times at 'at. On the other hand the six strike-outs attributed to Thomas are pretty evenly distributed among the different members of the Brownies, going to show that he ready had any one of them at his mercy at critical moments. Since the Brownies played their initial Since the Brownies played their initial Since the Brown'ss played their initial gene at Broad-Street Park some time ngo the fans have been of the opinion that there was a weak spot in the team, and yesterday this spot showed itself good and strong in the form of three insections of the fall of the ball, and the manuscript of the Brownies should take immendent of the Brownies should take immentant diste steps to strengthen this important diste steps to strengthen this important pictition. Gathright is a hard player and no doubt he does his best, but he is not the right man for the place. It seems impossible for him to properly handle a ground hit or a low ball—a trap—and he as replayed week of the but, never yet is julipably weak at the bat, never yet having been able to deliver the goods when a hit would have meant a run.

The game commenced with the locals lat the bat. Sharp being the first man to face

Thomas. He went out from second to first. Darby followed and was retired on an easy hit to third base. Morgan was thrown out from histher to first. For Manchester, J. O'Hara flew out to short. J Jennings followed by punching and Crortic retired the side by knocking an easy one to first.

In the second Eache went out from sec end to first, while Jim McEvoy secured his base on an error by J. O'Hara. He was advanced to second by Gathright getting a free pass to first on four had cres Ther with two men on base. Themas set-thed down, striking out noth Hegan and Emore. For Manchest r. Fritzschea se-cured a safe hit and was advanced to see ond by Driver, who was hit with a pitched hall. He scored on a safe swat by Knowles. Driver then attempted to score as a hit to Darby by Lewis and was of a hit to Darby by Lewis and was thrown out at the plate. Pat O'Hara and Thomas struck out. Seere 1 to 6. The only run rade by the Brownicz was secured in the third. Elmore hit saidy, but was forced out at second on a short infield drive by Sharp. Darby wer given als base and Sharp was moved along to second, from which place he see on a two-bagger by Morran, Darby being thrown out at the plate from left field in attempting to cross on the same hit. It was a had place of coaching. Eacho again went out from second ing. Eacho again went out from second to first, leaving Morgan unchored on third 3. O'Hara, first up for Manchester, was given his base on balls and stole sec-J. Jennings again struck out and Crostic went to the initial lag on an error by Gathrigh. Fritusches, flew out to the short step and Driver sailed to connect. Score, I to I.

From the third until the seventh inning neither team did anything worth recording, the men gring out in one, two, three coder, but in this inning Manchester added another run to her scors, breaking the tie and really winning the game. I'at O'Hara was the first man up and he biffed the ball for three bases, the crive being one of the longest of the season. Thomas struck out, and then Patrick scored on a swar for two bases by his brother, John, who died at second. Jennings striking out begger to deep center. He scored on a long fly to left field, the throw-in by Morgan not being quite enough to cut off the fleet-footed runner.

The Brownies would have undoubtedly scored a run in their half of this inning had Morgan been properly coached. He swatted the sphere for the longest hit seen on the field this year, but he was not running fast enough to stretch the biff into a home run. He should have been held at third instead of being urged in. As it was he was cut off by several feet. Had he been stopped on third base he could have scored on an outfield fly by Eacho, and the next man might have secured a safe hit. The result might have been changed had he been differently coached. Often before the Brownics have made the same error, and it is their loss.

Imperials Defeat Ashland.

The Imperials of Barton Heights de-feated the Ashland team on Saturday, the 30th, by a score of 10 to 6 on the latthe 30th, by a score of 10 to 6 on the lat-ter's ground. Crabill was in the box for the Imperials and his curves proved too much for the Ashland team, holding them down to six hits. Leake pitched a good game for the Ashland boys, but went to pieces in the fifth inning when the Barton Heights team scored seven runs. Leftwich's playing at second for the Imperials was the feature of the game.

MEN BRAIN-RACKED

are not to be found in Richmond. A real estate agent said yesterday that such a thing as a habitable house remaining without a tenant ten days was something unknown. The situation seems to be on such as was never before seen here. The city has now just about as many people as there are residences here to house them all, certainly not any less, and the fact is that they are doubling up, to a small extent at least.

Not a great many tenement residences are under course of construction. The demand is being met most gradually. One would think that an epidemic of building would have seized the city in view of the demand for houses, and the fact that rents have advanced from fifteen to twenty per cent. But the high price of labor and building material has check-meted only building force that might mated any building fever that might have been spread. That is not all that has caused the would-be landlord to hes-Itate. Naturally enough the landlords have not forgotten the conditions that prevailed in 1892 and '93 when they almost begged people to stay in the houses simply to protect the property from the lead pipe fiend and thief, and from other depredations. He was willing and glad the reason is not known, no one knows when the bottom is going to drop out and the landlord find himself on the losing side.

the landlord find himself on the losing side.

But the more hopeful and healthy view is taken by others. The demand for houses is brought about by the large number of people attracted here by the immense amount of work being done in all the big plants. The city is growing inpidly as an industrial center and this work is not to grow less, but more, and other people will be attracted here. The logical conclusion of such reasoning is the necessity for more residences that will be in reach of the class of skilled men who are able to pay $15 to $18 a month for their homes.

Flats are in great demand—more so than ever before. Richmend has not always been a city which encouraged flats. The people here have preferred their individual homes, with the yards for their children to play in, but young couples at house-keeping are continually asking the agents for flats. The demand is becoming more insistent all the time and the first man who erects a good flat here in a central location which will have family suits renting from $20 to $40 a month is going

PIECEMEAL MOVING.

Tons of bric-a-brac will be moved to-day in Richmond. Heavier furniture would the heavier stuff will go Tuesday and Wednesday. One could not go out on the streets yesterday without seeing wagons drawn up at various doors and furniture of every description going in or

NO GENERAL BUILDING.

Lee District is the only section of the city where much building has recently been done. Here a number are building houses for their own occupancy and others for rent. All these are line houses, which will rent for $400 or more a year. Many new houses are taken before they are built or even the foundations are dug. If a man rents desirable house now he has got to "get up soon in the morning" and see the landlord.
